ABOUT THE ROCHESTER PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

The mission of the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra is to inspire, educate and engage our community through the art of music. Core values of the RPO include a passionate dedication to outstanding musical performances at the highest artistic levels; a unique tradition of musical versatility, a commitment to music education in its broadest sense; a deep and enduring engagement with the community; a culture that inspires staff, board, volunteers and musicians to excel; and a commitment to grow while living within our means. The Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra embraces a tradition of musical excellence by presenting a diverse array of symphonic performances throughout the year. Originally established in 1922 with the support of George Eastman, the RPO thrives on a spirit of collaboration among musicians, staff, board members and the community. The RPO performs in the renovated Kodak Hall at Eastman Theatre and throughout the city and western New York State. Programs include education and outreach initiatives, and concert series for all types of listeners, including Philharmonics under the leadership of Music Director Andreas Delfs, Pops under the leadership of Principal Pops Conductor Jeff Tyzik, diverse Specials, Family, Sunday matinees, annual Nutcracker Ballet, multiple layers of full orchestra education concerts, and a diverse offering of summer concerts throughout New York State. The RPO regularly collaborates with arts organizations in the greater Rochester area including the Rochester City Ballet, local colleges including the Eastman School of Music, and choral and dance groups.

ABOUT THE ROCHESTER PHILHARMONIC YOUTH ORCHESTRA

Since 1970, the RPYO has offered our community's most advanced young musician's orchestral experiences of the highest order. Sponsored by the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra's Education Department, RPYO serves about 100 students in grades 8-12. It motivates its student musicians to achieve excellence in performance and a life-long love of music as music professionals or dedicated amateurs and friends of music. Weekly rehearsals, coaching by RPO musicians, an annual Side-by-Side Concert with the RPO, concerts in Rochester's major performance halls, and periodic trips or other special activities provide musically rich, personally rewarding, and uniquely maturing experiences.
